

Educational and wellbeing activities to do at home:

Education QLD produced 2 week units of work:

<https://education.qld.gov.au/curriculum/learning-at-home>

2 week units of work for years P-10 in maths, English and science other tips for learning at home for parents and students

Cybersafety and Online Use: www.esafety.gov.au

<https://www.esafety.gov.au/report>

- to report cyberbullying, online abuse, image based abuse, illegal/harmful content

Learning about using technology safely, cyberbullying, screen use, social media use, gaming, personal safety online:

Movies and clips: Try these out for your year level:

<https://www.esafety.gov.au/educators/classroom-resources>

Yr 7-9 - The Lost summer – videogame style learning platform with teaching and learning resources.

Yr 7 -8 - Game On (upper primary section) – movie clip and teaching learning resources about online gaming, social media use, screen time, privacy and personal information online

Yr 9 -10 - Tagged – An award-winning short film supported by teaching resources that encourage young people to reflect on the real life consequences of cyberbullying, sharing intimate images, and a negative digital reputation.

Yr 7-12- Be Deadly Online - Explores cyberbullying, digital reputation and respect for others, sexting through short videos and posters created by and for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Career information:

Career Planet:

<https://www.careerplanet.earth/> (also look up the app for your devices)

Career planet has a number of different resources that can help you make the right career choice. Information regarding courses at Universities, TAFE and local Colleges. Also find out about required ATARs and everything you need to know about taking a gap year

QTAC MyPath:

<https://mypath.qtac.edu.au/>

My Path helps you to discover your preferences, reflect on what you are good at, and be matched to a course and/or career path.